PART 1. ABOUT PHILSAT

The Philippine Law School Admission Test (PhiLSAT) is a standardized test designed to measure academic potential for success in the study of law.

Pursuant to the power of the Legal Education Board (LEB) to prescribe the minimum standards for law admission under Section 7(e) of Republic Act No. 7662, entitled the “Legal Education Reform Act of 1993,” the LEB, under LEB Memorandum Order No. 7 Series of 2016, required the PhiLSAT as a prerequisite for admission to the basic law courses leading to a Bachelor of Laws / Juris Doctor degree beginning school year 2019-2020.

The Center for Educational Measurement, Inc. (CEM) has been accredited to manage the affairs and activities related to the operation of the PhiLSAT. With CEM’s experience as an educational testing agency, it was commissioned to prepare the questions and administer the test, ensure the reliability and validity of the test, and uphold the confidentiality of results and integrity of its administration.

Brief Description of the Test

The PhiLSAT consists of subtests on communications and language proficiency, critical thinking skills, verbal reasoning, and quantitative reasoning.

COMMUNICATION AND LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY. This subtest measures the ability to recognize grammar and usage errors and determine the appropriateness of words and phrases in given sentences. This subtest consists of three question types— identifying sentence error, sentence completion, and improving sentences.

CRITICAL THINKING. This subtest measures the ability to analyze and evaluate reasoning in written materials and to draw conclusions about given propositions. This subtest consists of two question types—logical reasoning and analytical reasoning.

VERBAL REASONING. This subtest measures the ability to understand written materials and make conclusions based on their content. This subtest consists of reading passages followed by questions about the passage.

QUANTITATIVE REASONING. This subtest measures the ability to apply basic mathematical skills to the analysis and interpretation of real-world numerical information to draw conclusions. This subtest consists of three question types—pattern recognition, data sufficiency, and data interpretation. The items in this subtest involve basic mathematical concepts and the four fundamental operations—addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division. The items do not require difficult computations hence the use of a calculator is not needed. Some questions can be answered more quickly by reasoning and estimating.

Table 1. Overview of the PhiLSAT

Subtest	Item Type	No. of Items	Recommended Time Allotment
Communication and Language Proficiency	Identifying Sentence Error Sentence Completion Improving Sentences	50	50 minutes
Critical Thinking	Logical Reasoning Analytical Reasoning	50	65 minutes
Verbal Reasoning	Reading Comprehension	50	60 minutes
Quantitative Reasoning	Pattern Recognition Data Sufficiency Data Interpretation	50	65 minutes
Time Limit*			4 hours

* Examinees have four (4) hours to finish the whole test. It does NOT include time spent on preliminary activities, giving directions, and distribution of materials.

The CEM is NOT affiliated with, and does NOT endorse enrollment to, any professional review school or any law school in the Philippines. Please immediately inform the CEM management of incidents involving any institution(s) and/or person(s) particularly those previously or currently connected with CEM as officers and employees, or as site coordinators for the PhiLSAT, making pronouncements or claims contrary to the above. You may e-mail the PhiLSAT Secretariat at philsat@cem-inc.org.ph.

Test Results

The test scores are reported through electronic/online and printed copies of the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) and the Master List of Test Results (MLTR).

Release of Test Results: Electronic Copy

An electronic copy of your test results is available after twenty-one (21) days from the test date. You may click on the link for Test Results under the Online Options on the CEM website to view and/or download. The electronic copy is NOT valid for admission purposes. It is only meant to help you understand your scores so you can decide to which Philippine law schools to apply and whether or not you will retake the test.

Release of Test Results: Certificate of Eligibility/Certificate of Grades

Your PhiLSAT score will be printed in the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) if you pass. The original three copies of the COE will be mailed to the mailing address indicated on the PhiLSAT ID Form forty-five (45) days after the test date. On the other hand, if you score below the passing score your Certificate of Grades (COG) will no longer be printed, rather it will be sent through e-mail.

An independent courier service provider is contracted to transmit the PhiLSAT COEs. Delivery time may take more days for bulk mailing or approximately 4-7 days for NCR and 7-14 days in the provinces. LEB and CEM are not responsible for any claims for damages due to delayed delivery of your COE for any reason. If you have not received your COE two (2) weeks after the scheduled release, you may contact the PhiLSAT Secretariat.

As a general rule, the following are the authorized recipients during delivery of PhiLSAT COE.

For Residential Delivery

1. Examinee (or ultimate consignee)
2. Any Relative/ House Mate / House Helper residing in consignee's registered mailing address
3. Security Guard on-duty at any condominium or compound address

For Office Delivery

1. Examinee (or ultimate consignee)
2. Guard-on-duty, Receptionist, Office Assistant, Office mates

You will be notified by email and SMS that your PhiLSAT COE is underway. Special instruction will also be given to mailing categories that are for pick-up only from nearest courier outlets (out-of-serviceable areas, critical areas, etc.). You must keep your email and mobile phone number current to ensure the proper delivery of your test result.

After two (2) failed delivery attempts, your document will be forwarded back to sender. All Return-to-Sender documents are for pick-up only from the office of the Legal Education Board. Requests to disclose an individual's scores, over the phone or via e-mail, will NOT be entertained.

Request for Duplicate Copies

Law schools are directed not to collect or require the submission of the original copies of the COE at the time of filing of the application forms or for purposes of taking the admission test. The COE is to be collected at the point of official admission (LEBMO No. 23, August 2, 2018). Request for duplicate copy for other reason (i.e., loss, damaged, etc.) is subject to the approval of the Legal Education Board and must be filed directly to the office of LEB.

Distribution of Master List of Test Results

For authentication purposes, your score will also appear on the Master List of Test Results which will be sent to the Legal Education Board.

Rechecking of Answer Sheets

The CEM does not entertain rechecking of PhiLSAT answer sheets. The results contained in the COE and in the PhiLSAT Master List of Test Results are official and are guaranteed free of discrepancies.
